PetSet Expansion

PetSet recently held its 10th anniversary event in West Palm Beach. Asian fusion restaurant Bong played host to more than 300 members and friends. The organization, dedicated to helping abandoned animals by raising funds and awareness for the Humane Society of Broward County, raised $4,900 at the event.

Luna Landing

Created by the team who brought Colle Luna Rossa to Delray Beach, Ristorante Luna Rossa opened its new location in Deerfield Beach. The grand opening held this summer benefited the Fort Lauderdale Shore Our Strength Taste of the Nation fundraiser, an event that supports local hunger relief organizations such as the Daily Bread Food Bank.

2. Jorge Ramos, Ernesto DeLima, Earl Krag, Richard Cobbs, Chris Leone

Fashion Faux Paws

Over the past summer, the area's prettiest pups strutted their stuff at Gigi & Luca Pet Boutique in Lighthouse Point. All took the chance to star in a new doggie calendar from America's Best Top Dog Model.com. Although a Cavalier King Charles spaniel named Zoe took first place in her stunning pink gown and matching bow, all the contestants were deemed gracefully.

3. Victoria Steele and HolliAnne Arnold, Estimating Steele

Town Center Mingle

This summer's AfterHours Network event, presented by the Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce, once again gave members and non-members the opportunity to meet the spouses of individuals in the area business community.

All Hail the Perfect Arch

Spa Fever recently launched its new evening bar, adding relaxing, innovative service to the Delray Beach salon. Business manager and owner Daniela Roberts, also known as The Evening King of Beaches, Hills, was there to launch the new space. The sold-out event at Spa Fever brought 600 guests and 100 bikini tops and complimentary, complimentary $50 gifts.
