

Observer

Volume 44 No. 16 April 20, 2006

www.deerfieldbeachobserver.com

Business Briefs

Fashion show marks opening of jeans store
Gambino's Jeans is hosting a grand opening fashion show Sunday, April 23 at 3 p.m. in the parking lot of their first location, 186 N. Federal Highway, Deerfield Beach. The show will highlight most of the Gambino line which has been in development for the last five years. The company's signature jeans is Brazilian-styled with bulletholes encrusted with Swarovski crystals. There will be live entertainment, specials on the entire product line and CEO Christopher Gambino will speak. This is Gambino's first location in the U.S. with 25 other boutiques planned on the East Coast. To get a sneak peek at some of the clothing items, visit www.gambinoapparel.com.

Come giveaway

Ben & Jerry's on the beach in Deerfield Beach will be giving away free ice cream cones Tuesday, April 25, noon - 8 p.m. in a Free Cone Day program that benefits the Deerfield Chamber of Commerce Relay for Life team.

The red carpet is out for designer dogs

Jo Jo Harder, publisher of the Top Dog Calendar, has the red carpet out again for pooches of all breeds Thursday, April 27, 6-30 p.m. at Three Dog Bakery in Boca Center. The three best dressed dogs will be rewarded for their fashion sense with treats and prizes and last year's winner, Linda, a doerthead chihuahua whose owner Linda Celestin lives in Lighthouse Point, will make her final stroll down the red carpet. Doggie 'petitures' will be offered with proceeds going to the Tri-Country Humane Society. Harder promises a good time for all with treats for dog owners too.

Manufacturer moving headquarters here

Bentner Real Estate Group has leased 8,000 square feet of industrial/warehouse space at the Commerce Security Center to Millennium Hurricane, manufacturer and installer of hurricane shutters. The two-year old company will make its corporate headquarters in Deerfield Beach at SW 1 Way moving here from Oakland Park. Jeffrey Scott represented the lessee. Judy DeVoe of Levy Realty Advisors, Inc. co-brokered the deal.

Boca woman named to Norton post

Alexia Davis has been named public relations manager for the Norton Museum of Art and will be responsible for developing and implementing public relations strategies to promote the Museum's collections, special exhibitions, educational and membership programs, as well as special events on a local, national and international level. A resident of Boca Raton, Davis began her museum career at the Fort Lauderdale Museum of Discovery and Science and at the Museum of Art | Fort Lauderdale. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Art History from Florida Atlantic University.