

Society Monday

BOCA RATON NEWS • MAY 8, 2006

Robb & Stucky Interiors

America's Top Dog Model™ Contest

Marsha Balbier, Katy Koro, Kevin Koro, JoJo Harder

ROB & STUCKY INTERIORS IN MIZNER PARK. WAS THE stylish setting for an "America's Top Dog Model™ Contest" photography event recently. Thirteen stylishly dressed dogs, including Parti Poodle Katy Koro wearing a black satin dress by Herringbone & Hound, were photographed by award-winning photographer Tina Valant-Siebelts in elegant settings for entry into the contest. The theme for this year's contest is "Home is Where the Heart is." Entries must feature dogs dressed stylishly in a home setting that best reveals their home style. The winner will be featured on a 2007 calendar cover and in New York Dog and Hollywood Dog magazines. The event was organized by America's Top Dog Model Contest founder JoJo Harder and hosted by Robb & Stucky's event planner Marsha Balbier. A $5 donation for each photograph taken was made to the Florida Humane Society. For more contest information, visit www.americastopdogmodel.com.