

Owners, pets get ready to walk Worth Avenue

March is the month for marches, parties and peggies.

Worth Avenue Pet Parade — Pampered Palm Beach pooches are already primping and preparing to "bow wow" the crowd at the 13th annual Pet Parade and Contest. After all, this is their chance to be top dog in categories such as Best Stifle, Longest Tail and Best in Show.

Once again, Sherry Frankel of Sherry Franke's Malangerie will be the emcee or the "bitch-stress of ceremonies" as she calls herself.

"People come from as far away as Ohio for this event," she said. "Some even come to Palm Beach around when the contest will be."

This year's event begins with registration at 9 a.m. Saturday in the Gucci Courtyard off Worth Avenue. See www.worth-avenue.com for more info.

Dog models — An added plus this year is that after the pet parade and judging, America's Top Dog Model Contest will hold a casting call and two winning dogs will have the chance to be featured in a calendar and book. See the Web site www.americas1stopdogmodel.com for more info.
