

SOCIETY

November 26, 2007

A Reporting Publication of The New York Times Company

Good news. Great works. Community spirit.

Photo: © David Laundy

Worth Avenue Association celebrates the holidays with America's Top Dog Models

Page 24

Jo Jo Hardee, left, and Eliza Tzabgor, with Trixie

Present your perfect pet and join the Worth Avenue Association (WAA) as they host a dog day affair with holiday flair.

The America's Top Dog Models Awards and Holiday Extravaganza is set for 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Dec. 8 in the Gucci Courtyard on Worth Avenue in Palm Beach.

The event begins as winners of America's Top Dog Models 2007 Contest arrive via limousine and are interviewed on the red carpet prior to receiving their awards.

The festivities continue as Santa sweeps in to pose for lovey-dovey photographs with his favorite four-legged (and two-legged) friends. Craft Gallery will offer "pawtographs," where guests can have their pet's paws printed on a clay tile. In addition, the spirited event will feature holiday music, refreshments, are available at a nominal charge to benefit the Palm Beach Zoo.

Gail Eaton, left, and Sherry Frankel with Gigi and Buckeye

"The Worth Avenue Association is just howling over the excitement that is being built up for this unique event," began Sherry Frankel, of Sherry Frankel's Melangerie and president of the Worth Avenue Association for a great cause."

Worth Avenue is one of the only pet-friendly premier shopping destinations in the world. Pets are welcome to explore the mall with their owners and doggie hoes line the Avenue.

All events of the America's Top Dog Model Contest benefit animal charities.