GOLDEN ARCHES

If eyes are the windows to the soul, brows are the frames, explains Anastasia Soare, a celebrity eyebrow stylist in town recently extolling the virtues of quality arches. Over-plucked brows make a face appear washed out, while bushy brows look angry (and don't get her started on the un-brow). The right contour, on the other hand, works wonders. According to Soare, the key to perfectly shaped, symmetrical brows lays in her secret "golden proportion technique," which combines elements of math, architecture and technical art. "This brings harmony to the face," explains Soare, whose clients include Madonna and Oprah Winfrey. Need a lift? The Brow Studio in Nordstrom at Town Center at Boca Raton performs Soare's technique ($30 per session). (It – if you dare – try the do-it-yourself kit. OVERHEARD

“Without you, I would have been laying on the floor. I was ready to pass out.”

— Boca Raton resident Ken Hampert to emergency dispatcher James Sullivan, who called him through the delivery of his son, Justin, after his wife unexpectedly went into labor at home. The Boca Raton Police Services Department awarded Sullivan a Distinguished Service Award.

PETS

OH, FURBABY!

Meet Dudley, West Palm Beach resident, environmentalist and this year's America's Top Dog Model. As winner of the coveted title, the Old English Sheepdog will be featured on the cover of an America's Top Dog Model calendar and receive valuable prizes including a custom-designed Aurlon crystal crown, collar and jewelry set. Dudley won for his gorgeous mug and for exemplifying this year's contest theme, "Go Geogically Green." With the help of his human, Stephanie Klein, Dudley is an avid recycler, uses natural grooming products and eats only organic food from a bamboo dish.

EDUCATION

GOOD GRADES

An A-plus goes out to the four Boca Raton schools included in Newsweek's recently released annual list of the nation's top 1,300 public high schools. They include: Boca Raton Community High School (83rd), Spanish River Community High School (240th), West Boca Raton High School (696th) and Olympic Heights Community High School (1,221st).

BEHIND ODDBALL CANDY BARS

You know life is mundane when

Tijuana Mama Sausage becomes the highlight of your existence. This and other munchies are all the rage among funny Broward and Palm Beach County jailbirds, who, tired of mystery casserole, cornbread and jello, demanded better food – and got it. Rather than telling convicts to stick their orders where the sun don't shine, a new snack system has been implemented, and jails now offer Cheez-It, Ramen Noodles and peanut butter cookies waiting to be devoured by the counties' finest punks, pickpockets and car thieves. Prisoners pay for the grub with money sent by friends and family. Apparently, they've been hungry. In just the first three months of this year, they latched onto $948,000 for the fattening treats.
