A great way to celebrate the "dog days of summer" is to attend a local, animal charity event. Here are three fun events coming up in Florida to support animal rescue:

Second Annual Bowl for Pet's Sake

St. Francis Society Animal Rescue hosts the second annual "Bowl for Pet's Sake" to benefit dogs and cats served by this 501-C-3 non-profit, all volunteer animal rescue. The event will take place, Saturday, August 14, 2010 at AMF University Lanes, 13109 North 56th Street, in Tampa, Florida.

Registration the day of the event begins at noon. Bowling takes place at 1 PM and 3 PM. There will be prizes, raffles, a silent auction, food, and drinks, all for a pledge or personal donation of $25. For more information call St. Francis Animal Rescue at 813-830-or email Kathy Hall: cheshirekat191@aol.com.

Tri-County Humane Society Photo Party for International Homeless Animal Day

This is pet-friendly event will take place at Elizabeth Photography, 777 East Atlantic Avenue, Suite B-2, Delray Beach, Florida, on Saturday, August 21, 2010 from 1 - 5 PM.

Guests who donate $25 or more will receive a free photo shoot and choice of 5 X 7 photo with their dog. All proceeds to benefit Tri-County Humane Society.

Paws for the Cause

Paws for the Cause will host their August event on the ocean at Latitudes Lounge at Highland Beach Holiday Inn, 2809 South Ocean Boulevard, Highland Beach, Florida. The event will take place Tuesday, August 24, 2010, from 6 - 8 PM.

Cost for members is $10, guests $20, and $35 to join and attend. The donation includes a cocktail and light appetizers. Raffle prizes will be available with all proceeds to benefit Tri-County Humane Society. This is a humans (21 & over) event. Free self parking is available. Upscale attire is suggested.

Paws for the Cause monthly social events are a great opportunity to meet like-minded, friendly, animal loving people, in a relaxed, elegant atmosphere, while supporting a worthy cause. For more information call
