Boca Raton-Fla.-based America's Top Dog Model Contest, which each year hosts a nationwide search for canines that are chic, and make a difference in the world, recently released its 2013 calendar.

In addition to enabling fashion forward Fidos to put on the dog, America's Top Dog Model founder Jo Jo Harding, a fashion designer, author of the book "How to Become a Top Dog Model" and former model herself, supports various animal rescue and welfare charities through the organization.

Each year, a winning tail-wagger gets to be featured on the cover of the calendar. This year's cover canine is 2011 Top Dog Model Contest winner Hellen, a blind rescue from Homestead, Fla.

"She makes a difference by partnering with her mom, Betty, who is a volunteer at Friends Forever Rescue in Homestead," Jo Jo said. "They help raise funds for this rescue by sharing Hellen's story at fundraisers and schools."

The group is running a calendar special for America's Top Dog Model for Facebook fans for Black Friday, Small Business Saturday and Cyber Monday. Those who buy two or more calendars get one free on these days.

America's Top Dog Model for 2013 contest will launch in January.
