

Posh Pooch Named America's Top Dog Model for 2013

By Alissa Wolf, About.com Guide May 19, 2013

My Bio | Headlines | Forum | RSS

Follow me on:

Facebook

Twitter

Free Pet Shops Newsletter!

Sign Up

Discuss in my forum

Ads: Natural Dog Food Puppy Pet Shops Dog Beds Pet Dog Grooming Products Mobile Pet Grooming

The group America's Top Dog Model named Johnny B. Goode, a dapper Standard Poodle from Florida, the winner of the Top Dog Model contest for 2013.

This year's theme was "Jet Set Paws," in celebration of glamour traveling with pets.

Johnny, who lives with his mom, Debra Blevin in West Palm Beach, is well known as a jet-setting canine, who especially enjoys yachting.

In addition to the many paw-some prizes he received, he will get to grace the cover of the next America's Top Dog Model calendar.

America's Top Dog Model was founded by former fashion model and pooch lover Jo Jo Harder to help celebrate the special bond between people and dogs, and to support various animal charities and rescue organizations.

Congrats to Johnny, you handsome dog!

Photo courtesy of Jo Jo Harder