Bronze Mag • July 16, 2019

If you share a love for dogs, then you will love America's Top Dog Model's new original reality series How to Get to the Top. Filmed in Palm Beach County, the exciting new competition show will premiere on America's Top Dog Model YouTube Channel, Wednesday, August 7, 2019. Set for a 5-episode season run, a new episode will debut each week with America's Top Dog Model winners and their people revealing how they got to the top.

We caught up with Jo Jo Harder, the creator of America's Top Dog Model competition and Bronze Magazine contributor about what to expect from the show. "Our new series will provide an opportunity for our aspiring canine models, which include rescues and mixed breeds, to be celebrated. This is America's Top Dog Model's mission, to celebrate dogs that make a difference in people's lives," she says.

America's Top Dog Model © 2019 winners were selected for their winning style and heartwarming stories, as well as star qualities, training, charities, and best thought out photographic portrayal of the contest theme "Pup Stars."
