

DOGS

A Doggone Diva: America's Top Dog Model is a Stunner From Rancho Cucamonga

The 2020 contest winner is Shai, a 1-and-a-half-year-old Afghan hound who is also a service dog from Rancho Cucamonga.

By Heather Navarro • Published August 25, 2020 • Updated on August 25, 2020 at 5:30 pm

One fierce pup is paws above the rest in Southern California after being crowned — or coned? — America's Top Dog Model.

One fierce pup is paws above the rest in Southern California after being crowned — or coned? — America's Top Dog Model.

The 2020 contest winner is Shai, a 1-and-a-half-year-old Afghan hound who is also a service dog from Rancho Cucamonga.

AlexVnews @alexvnews
The IE #RanchoCucamonga is now the home of America's Top Dog. Shai, a 1 1/2 -year-old Afghan Hound has taken top honors in America's Top Dog Model 2020 "Fairy Tails" Contest. #NotaDiva yet

6:00 PM · Aug 25, 2020

35 See AlexVnews's other Tweets

"I was screaming and crying, and grabbing her," said Shai's owner Terre Moshe when they received the news. "We were just really surprised. Especially during this pandemic, it's just a nice thing."

The contest, titled "Fairy Tails," sought out mystical pups, like a runnerup Malti-pom posing on a pony, and a Marina del Rey pug posing by the shore.

Shai won posing as "Big Red Riding Hood."

But if you're wondering if fame has changed Shai, or made her "ruff" around the edges, her owner says the dog is definitely carrying her tail high.