America's Top Dog

Little Red Riding Hood may have captivated children's audiences with her story of tricking the big bad wolf, but the lesson learned by Big Red Riding is just as deserving of a place in the annals of storytelling. "America's Top Dog Model Book of Fairy Tales," written by JoJo Harder and published by TriMark Press, features the story of Big Red Riding Hood, plus eleven more tales – or tails – showcasing one-of-a-kind canines cloaked as fairy tale characters living fantastic adventures worthy of kings and queens. The book follows the America's Top Dog Model ® 2020 national contest. Each magical and captivating "tail" is written by the loving moms of contest winner Shai, and finalists Griffin, AvaGrace, Delilah, Willow, Betsey, Mocha, Haven Camille, Jewls, Royal, Aria, and Charlie. A devout dog lover who is mom to Italian Greyhound Romeo, author JoJo Harder transitioned from creating fashions for people to the world of doggie glamour by founding America's Top Dog Model ® Contest in 2005. The book available for purchase at www.americastopdogmodel.com.
